EXT. DESERT - NIGHT

BUD and MELISSA walk though the desert, following the path that JAKE took on the way back to his car.

BUD

What scares you?

MELISSA

Snakes.

BUD

No big deal. You just need to learn how to pin them down with a stick and grab them by the top of the head. You just pinch their skull so that they can't turn, leap out and bite.

He mimics a snake leaping out and biting her on the neck.

MELISSA

Not for me. I'll just stay away from them, thank you.

BUD

Maybe you'd prefer handling them like this.

He gently grasps her head, gives her a kiss and they make out for a brief moment, then continue on their way.

MELISSA walks as if worried a snake will pop out at any moment.

MELISSA

Geez, it's a long way to his car.

BUD

What's Jake up to these days? Did he make the team?

MELISSA

(looking back at Bud)
Yeah, he did. We're so proud of him. His first game is...

She suddenly trips on something and falls forward, face down on the ground.

BUD

Are you Okay?

MELISSA

Yeah, I guess so. What did I trip on?

BUD

Oh shit.

MELISSA

What?

BUD

Uh...

She suddenly realizes she tripped on the mutilated body of her brother, JAKE, killed in the same fashion as the two other serial murders.

MELISSA

(Screams) AHHHHH!

BUD carries MELISSA back towards the car. She remains hysterical.

EXT. DESERT NEAR CAR - NIGHT

BUD and MELISSA near the spot where the others are gathered but not within hearing distance.

BUD

Calm down, Mel. We'll get to the bottom of this. Let's just not alarm the others. The last thing we need now is to panic.

MELISSA

(Screams) AHHHHH!

TOM, CYNTHIA, PETER and NANCY hear the scream and turn to react with alarm.
